

MADELINE FUJISHIRO

DVM, DACVIM (SAIM)

Internal Medicine

Dr. Madeline Fujishiro grew up in Pueblo, Colorado. She received her Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences from Colorado State University. She worked in Denver for a few years before going back to school to obtain her Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine from Colorado State University, graduating summa cum laude. Following graduation, she did a one-year small animal rotating internship at the University of Georgia. She then went on to complete a three-year residency in small animal internal medicine at Texas A&M University. She spent several years practicing at a busy specialty hospital in Las Vegas before moving back home to Colorado. She enjoys all aspects of internal medicine and has a special interest in endocrinology, gastroenterology, and feline medicine. In her free time, Dr. Fujishiro likes to hike, read, and nap.
