

EMILY SEIDEL

DVM, DACVIM

Internal Medicine

While originally from Baltimore, Maryland, Dr. Seidel received her B.A. in English from the University of Georgia in 2013. She then obtained her DVM from Kansas State University in 2017. Following her veterinary degree, she completed a small animal rotating internship at Red Bank Veterinary Hospital in Red Bank, NJ. Dr. Seidel then finished her training by completing a residency in small animal internal medicine at the University of Pennsylvania in 2021 and becoming a board-certified veterinary internist. Dr. Seidel has a special interest in lower urinary tract disease, infectious disease, and GI disease.

Outside of work, Dr. Seidel enjoys traveling, especially to Southern and Eastern Africa, frequenting taco trucks, and spoiling her Boston Terrier named Fitz.
