

VALERIA CACERES

DVM

Dentistry

Dr. Valeria Caceres was born and raised in Los Angeles, California. She attended the University of California - Davis, where she obtained her Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology in 2014. During her time there, she discovered that her true passion was caring for animals and fostering the bond between clients and their pets. She then obtained her Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine from the University of Wisconsin - Madison in 2020. After completing a small animal rotating internship at the University of Tennessee- Knoxville, Dr. Caceres discovered a love for treating patients with dental diseases and performing intricate oral surgeries to improve their overall quality of life. Following her internship, she went to Colorado State University to complete her three-year residency program in Dentistry and Oral Surgery. Outside of work, Dr. Caceres enjoys spending time with her husband, their two dogs, two cats, and hamster. Her interests include boxing, cycling, hiking, trying new restaurants, and watching her husband fish.
