

SARA BRESSE

DVM

24/7 Emergency Care

Dr. Sara Bresse was born and raised in and New Orleans, LA. She completed her undergraduate degree with a Bachelor of Science in Biology at San Diego State University. She had the incredible opportunity to attend Ross School of Veterinary Medicine in the Caribbean, on an island called St. Kitts. She completed her clinical year at Colorado State University School of Veterinary Medicine. She has a Doctorate in Veterinary Medicine and is certified in Veterinary Medical Acupuncture. Dr. Bresse has interests in veterinary emergency medicine, diagnostic imaging, disaster relief, and public health/preventative medicine. Her hobbies include cooking, traveling, hiking, biking, volleyball, playing with her dog, Sadie, and her cat, Stella, and enjoying the Colorado outdoors. She looks forward to meeting you and providing the highest level of care for you and your special companion.